SUBMITS CANDIDATES FOR B. OF E.

D. C. Walls Offers Names of 4 Candidates Who Are Not Pledged to Support Any Individual for Supt.

My dear Voter:
There appeared in The Breckenridge News of last week, the following editorial:

"Keep schools out of politics. Vote for a progressive and non-partisan Board of Education."

G. A. Wright
O. R. Hardin
Tice McCoy
J. A. Haynes
Robert Weatherford

"A vote for these men is a vote for the endorsement of the work of the County Superintendent, J. R. Meador. A vote for any other is a vote against him and against better schools."

The voters of our county need no introduction to this list of gentlemen who are submitted by Mr. Meador for his endorsement. We recognize in their majority a body of fair partisan Republicans. We have no comment to offer, other than they will support Mr. Meador for the office he desires. In cultivated dreams we could never picture a more flagrant mixture of politics in schools than now in our county. From the editorial mentioned we judge the members of this board in question are candidates for the endorsement of J. R. Meador, our present superintendent.

We are submitting the following candidates to constitute the Board of Education of Breckinridge county, to wit:

Miss Eliza Pile, Mook, Ky.
Mr. Mike Lyddan, Webster, Ky.
Mr. Edwin F. Egart, Mooleville, Ky.

Mr. Chas. L. Miller, Hardinsburg, Route 3, Ky.

This board is not pledged to any individual for the office of school superintendent. We know they are capable, honest and will be directed by their best judgement in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the schools of our County.

We urge every man and woman to think seriously, charge to themselves this grave responsibility and cast their votes for the above Board, and in so doing you will assist in bringing Breckinridge county out of the mire and place our schools in a progressive column. The above names have not been picked by any one man, but on the other hand have been selected and recommended by voters residing in the various parts of Breckinridge county. Respectfully,

D. C. Walls, Chairman of Democratic Committee, Breck. Co. Adv.

52 YEARS OLD AND KILLS HIS FIRST FOX.

Frymire, Oct. 25. (Special)—Last Friday, while R. Bruner and his dog were on their way to Mr. Bruner's sister, Mrs. S. J. Brashers, both spied three foxes in the woods. The dog "treed" one and his master killed it. Mr. Bruner says he is 52 years old and this is the first fox he ever killed. It has been 30 years since he has been fox hunting.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to extend our sincere thanks to our friends and relatives for their kindness and sympathy shown us at the death of our beloved mother, Mary M. Gray. We also wish to thank Rev. Smith for his consoling words, those who sent beautiful flowers, and who in any way extended their sympathy.

Children.

HON. BEN D. RINGO TO SPEAK WEDNESDAY

Hon. Ben D. Ringo, of Owensboro, a prominent Democratic speaker, will be in Cloverport tonight, Wednesday, Oct. 27. He will speak in Weatherholt's garage. Mr. Ringo is to speak in Lodi on Wednesday afternoon and arrives here on the evening train. With him will be Mrs. Sallie M. Beard, chairman Democratic Women's Campaign of Breckinridge County, and Mrs. Sam Monarch, of Hardinsburg.

BOUNDARIES OF PRECINCT NO. 4

Many Residents of West End Will Vote in Cloverport's New Precinct.

For the information of many voters living in the newly created voting precinct in the lower part of Cloverport, The Breckenridge News publishes the new boundary line for their information.

Precinct No. 4 begins at the foot of Popular street just below the Star Roller Mills near the Ohio River.

The boundary line passes up Popular street taking in all the voters on the right hand side to Mr. James Cordrey's corner. Then it follows the right hand side of the Railroad street taking in all that territory lying between Railroad street and the river to the Ben Ridgeway corner, then it follows out Oak street up over Bishop's Hill on a straight line until it strikes the old Short Line railroad.

Beginning there it follows the Short Line using it as a boundary line between Precinct No. 3 and No. 4 to the Balltown line. All voters living between this boundary line and the Hancock county line will vote in Precinct No. 4.

All voters living on the opposite of this division line will continue to vote in No. 3, as it is No. 3 which has been divided into two voting places.

YEWELL HOLDER IN RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

News has been received here that Yewell Holder, son of Mr. Oscar Holder and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bohler, who is employed as a fireman on the terminal in St. Louis, was in a wreck very recently and sustained a broken foot. He is said to be getting along nicely.

INFANT SON OF MR. AND MRS. J. T. HESLER DEAD.

Frymire, Oct. 25. (Special)—Several from this place attended the funeral of little James Hesler, the seven months old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hesler, of Lodi, who was buried in the Union Star graveyard, Saturday, Oct. 23.

The infant is survived by his parents, two brothers and a sister.

BLEDSES PURCHASE VAUGHAN FARM.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bledsoe, residents of the Hill, have sold the property in which they are living to Mr. Vaughan in part payment of Mr. Vaughan's farm in Skillman, Ky. The latter is not moving to Cloverport but has offered his new purchase for sale.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of Mrs. Charles B. Pate desire to express their appreciation of those friends who were so thoughtful and kind to them in their sad bereavement.

END COMES TO PATIENT SUFFERER

Mrs. Chas. B. Pate Died in Tobinsport Buried Here. Leaves 5 Great Grandchildren.

The remains of Mrs. Charles B. Pate, who died Wednesday morning at her home in Tobinsport, Ind., were taken to the Taul graveyard near the Clover Creek Baptist church, for interment on Thursday afternoon. Rev. E. B. English, pastor of the Hardinsburg Baptist church, held a short service at the grave.

Mrs. Pate's death was due to complications and she had been ill for several months.

Before her marriage Mrs. Pate was Miss Nancy Jane Taul. She was born June 13, 1848 in Nicholasville, Ky., and married Charles B. Pate, Feb. 28, 1869. This union was blessed with three children, two sons and one daughter. One son, Oscar D. died in infancy.

Surviving are the husband and son, William Pate, of Cloverport, and Mrs. Alf Hawkins, of Tobinsport, Ind. One brother, Dee Taul, of Canaw, Mo., and one sister, Mrs. Mary B. Oelze, of this city. Seven grandchildren and five great grandchildren with a host of other relatives and friends who mourn their loss.

Mrs. Pate became a Christian early in life and united with the Pisgah Baptist church of Breckinridge county where she remained a faithful member until her departure of this life. She was perfectly resigned to God's will and often expressed her readiness to depart this life and be with Him. She bore her sufferings patiently and heroically.

"Servant of God, well done. The glorious warfare past. The battle is fought, the race run, And thou art crowned at last!"

GOV. MORROW AND MRS. SOUTH HERE

Republicans Hold Another Rally Prior To Election. Have Large Crowd.

Ripley, Miss. Oct. 20.—"Uncle Jack" Terry, 108 years old has the unique experience of cutting his third set of teeth. "Uncle Jack" was asked if this was the truth, and said the third set of teeth were of little practical value to him being easily broken.

MORROW GREETED AT HARDINSBURG

Enthusiasm of Republicans of County Runs High at Rally Tuesday. Mrs. South and Mr. Ernest Speak Too.

The big Republican rally held in Hardinsburg, Tuesday drew fifteen hundred people from Breckinridge county at large. The main attraction at the rally was Governor Edwin P. Morrow, and with him were Mrs. Christine Bradley South and Richard P. Ernest, Republican candidate for Senator.

The Governor and his party were met at the station with a brass band. A parade was formed at the depot made up of forty cars. Leading the procession was a small log cabin placed on a wagon bed and drawn by horses. The party was entertained at the hotel for luncheon.

An overflow meeting was held in the court house yard when the three speakers addressed the crowd in the open air. Afterwards the court room was filled to overflowing to hear Governor Morrow make his main speech.

The Governor was received with a wild applause. Devotees of the G. O. P. hailed him with shouts and hurrahs. Mrs. Christine Bradley South, who has been one of the leading speakers among the Republican campaign women, met with a hearty and enthusiastic applause, and so did Mr. Ernest.

In fact, it was a grand final for the Republicans of this county previous to the election on Tuesday.

After speaking at the county seat,panied by members of the Republican Gov. Morrow and Mrs. South, accompanied by members of the Republican campaign committee from Cloverport motored here for another rally on Tuesday evening.

BECKHAM SPEAKS IN H'BURG, OCT. 30

Mrs. Shackelford Miller, Louisville, to be Heard Also at Big Democratic Rally Saturday.

My dear Friend:

Every indication points to victory—we have them on the run. On Saturday, October 30th, Senator J. C. W. Beckham and Mrs. Shackelford Miller of Louisville, will address the voters at Hardinsburg upon the issues of this Campaign. It is our plan to give these speakers the greatest ovation that has ever been accorded visitors to our county seat. We will meet the train which arrives here at 11:15 o'clock a. m., with a brass band which we wish to follow with 500 automobiles loaded with people. In order to do this it will require the assistance of every Democratic voter in our county.

I want every individual to feel that it is his duty to help in this great demonstration. Be here with your cars, your family and your friends. We will leave the Public Square promptly at 11 o'clock and will expect every car in the county to be in this parade.

You have been generous in your support to me in this Campaign—I beg you again to come to my rescue!

Sincerely,
Vic Robertson,
Democratic Campaign Committee.

OVER $89 MADE AT POPULAR RUN PIE SUPPER.

The pie supper Friday night at the Popular Run Educational Division No. 6, Subdistrict 7, was quite successful. The spirited bidding of the young men for the dainty pies swelled the proceeds to the sum of $89.35. The money will be applied to the County's quota for the Kentucky Children's Home Society.

Mrs. R. B. McGlothlan, of Irvington, and Mr. Dave Walls, of Hardinsburg, made political speeches at the gathering. The Popular Run school is taught this year by Mrs. Mary Brown.

MEADOR APPEALS FOR MIXED BOARD

Wants County Board of Education a Non-Political Body. Names His Endorsers.

Hardinsburg, Ky. Oct. 25, 1920

To the Friends of Education:
The last Legislature passed a bill providing for the election of the County Board of Education at the general election in November. This board will then appoint the county superintendent for a term of four years. The whole purpose of this law is to keep schools as far removed from political influence as possible. This board will consist of five members to be elected from the county at large outside of graded school districts.

In order to carry out the intentions of the law I insisted upon a mixed board composed of both Democrats and Republicans, and these to be more interested in schools than in politics. With this in view the following men filed petitions for election to the said board: Tice McCoy, O. R. Hardin, G. A. Wright, J. A. Haynes, and Robert Weatherford—two Democrats and three Republicans, but none of them politicians.

After these men had filed their petitions Vic Robertson, Dave Walls, and Dud McGary—three men who are in no way interested in schools—filed five candidates without even consulting the parties. Their list was as follows: Mike Lyddan, Ed Egart, Mrs. Mary Brown, C. L. Miller and Miss Eliza Pile. All are Democrats and in no way interested in schools except for political advantage. After learning that her name had been filed as a candidate Mrs. Brown petitioned the county Clerk to have her name withdrawn, and so only the four remain.

Our schools can never function as they should until they are made free from the blighting influence of those who would seek to use them for partisan political advantage. We can not remove them from such influence so long as the politicians are to select the county boards, and select only politicians for membership thereon.

A vote for a mixed board will be an endorsement of my efforts as your County Superintendent. The election of a partisan board will destroy all that we have sought to accomplish.

Those who wish to take a stand for better schools should work for the election of Tice McCoy, O. R. Hardin, G. A. Wright, J. A. Haynes and Robert Weatherford.

Yours very truly,
J. R. Meador.

BENEFIT SOCIAL AT C. H. S. BUILDING FRIDAY EVENING.

There will be a pie supper at the Public School Building next Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Girls are asked to bring pies, and it is especially desirable for the boys to bring merry hearts and full purses. Proceeds derived from the supper will go to the Kentucky Children's Home.

In addition to the pie supper and other attractions, the following program has been arranged: Chorus - High School Glee Club Opening Remarks - Supt. R. F. Peters Reading (Selected) - Selma Sippel Chorus - High School Glee Club Everybody is urged to come out have a good time, and make the meeting a success.

Harvest Sale at Beard's!

*"When the frost's on the pumpkin
And the fodder's in the shock."*

Harvest Days are Here and Harvest Sale days begin at B. F. Beard & Co's big store on Friday, October 29th, and last thru Saturday, Nov. 6th. Eight whopping big days of such value giving as haven't been seen in a long time.

The Big Thing about this Harvest Sale is that it's at the beginning of our busy Fall business and the merchandise offered in the sale is not tail-end summer articles but warm things you need and will need this winter, blankets and comforts, woolen goods, outings, winter clothes, shoes, stoves and ranges, furniture and rugs, axes and guns, and many many other things that we haven't room to list even in this big ad.

There has been a decline in the cotton market and while most of the goods on our shelves were bought at high prices we are going to give our customers not only the advantage of the present market decline—which alone means a big loss to us—but in many instances prices are way under market values during this sale.

Remember the dates—Oct. 29, thru Nov. 6th

WHERE THE DOLLAR LOOMS

That man is more concerned about saving and making the dollar than he is about establishing peace or preventing future wars is shown in a survey made by a prominent banking concern of New York and Chicago and is described as "A Composite Picture of Business America." It gives answers from over four thousand men of affairs in every state in the Union relative to the political and economical conditions in their sections.

Foremost among the questions is the one to which out of the 3,673 replies, 2,641 say that the matter of reduced taxation is considered more important than the League of Nations.

It is a certain fact that men who have been staunch supporters of the Democratic party have turned to the other side because of having to pay an excess profit tax. These 2,641 advocates of reduced taxation, the majority of whom have made more money from the present administration than ever before in their lives and want to keep every cent of it, are thinking more of the dollar than any peace treaty or of the future of their country. The blood that was shed on the battlefields of Europe by their sons, has not over shadowed their selfish interest. As far as these 2,641 persons are concerned there have been millions of lives lost for naught.

Upon the other hand, there are men who are bravely taking the stand for the League of Nations, regardless of excess profit tax or any party affiliations. From this report it would seem they are in the minority. However, it's good to know that there are brave souls who can look beyond the dollar, who can be above party influences and stand for right and who will be found keeping their trust with those who gave their lives for humanity.

Next Tuesday will tell the story of honest men.

KEEP SCHOOLS OUT OF POLITICS!

Vote for a progressive and non-partisan County Board of Education.

G. A. WRIGHT
O. R. HARDIN
TICE MCCOY
J. A. HAYNES
ROBERT WEATHERFORD

A vote for these men is a vote for the endorsement of the work of the County Superintendent, J. R. Meador. A vote for any other is a vote against him and against better schools.

The Breckenridge News endorses these men as candidates for election on the County Board of Education, and in so doing the News has had no thought of partisan politics. We believe that school elections should be kept clean and free of politics.

In endorsing these candidates we endorse the work of Mr. Meador. He has made the best School Superintendent the county has ever had, and we favor the man who is capable of doing the work regardless of his politics.

When it comes to the welfare of our children there is no room for politics to enter in.

After the election we have the County Agricultural Fair held in Hardinsburg, November 11th and 12th.

This time next week it will all be over even to the "shoutin'."

And the New York Post predicts a Democratic landslide.

SCHOOL NEWS AND VIEWS

By J. R. Meador, Supt.

The Agricultural and School Fair will be held at Hardinsburg on Thursday and Friday, November 11, and 12. The second day, November 12, will be "School Day" and all schools are requested to attend and take part in the fair. A splendid list of prizes has been offered and schools should begin now to make their arrangements to complete for these prizes.

All contests are open to Public, Parochial, and Private Schools and all these schools are urged to enter their exhibits in all the contests.

Some persons are attempting to embarrass the management of the fair by circulating the report that Parochial and Private schools are barred from competing for the prizes but such is not the case. The committee on arrangement for the school department, of which department I was appointed chairman, had no intention of excluding any one and no one was excluded.

Premium lists have been mailed to all school teachers and to all private and parochial schools in the county.

Let every body boost and nobody knock, and let every body realize that it takes work to make for pro-

ORACLE URGES THRIFT.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 20.—Born a slave and now reputed to be one of the wealthiest and most respected negroes in the South, David T. Howard, 71 years old, today celebrated his golden wedding occasion to give some advice to his race.

Beginning on a legacy of $150, left by his former master, Howard now owns a business rated as the fourth largest of its kind in the city, and financial institutions willingly make loans on his name.

"I never wasted time, never went in for wild oats, never saw a baseball game and never danced a step—but always attended to my business," said Howard. "No social equality for me—no sane-thinking negro desires it."

The negro of today, Howard said, wishes more justice in courts, better accommodations on railroad trains and more schools for his children.

"Too many silk skirts and too much good time," said he, were the cause of racial unrest.

gress even when all help. If all will cooperate the Agricultural and School Fair can be made a success and a factor for improvement of Breckenridge county in and agricultural and educational way.

FARM BUREAU NEWS

The Executive Committee of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation at a meeting at Louisville on Oct. 20 passed unanimously the following resolutions:

To the Farmers of the State of Kentucky.

The most important problem confronting the farmers today and the one most pressing solution, is the proper means to avoid the present low prices of farm products which recently have fallen far below the cost of production. We believe that these prices have been unduly depressed below those warranted even by present conditions.

The Executive Committee of the Farm Bureau of the State of Kentucky realizing the importance of the cost of production, believes that farmers are fully justified in not selling their products until such time as they shall receive cost of production.

There is a large surplus of farm products of all kinds over and above the world's needs at the present time. If this is true, in our opinion, the only sensible thing for the farmers to do is to make their arrangements to cultivate such land and produce such crops as will give them a fair return for their labor.

There is no other business that would continue to produce a surplus for which there is no sale except at ruinous prices. It is certainly of prime importance that farmers of this state begin to conduct their affairs in a business-like way, and the Kentucky Farm Bureau and the American Farm Bureau Federation are the business organizations of the farmers of Kentucky and the United States.

JOG ALONG

Frank L. Stanton, in Atlanta Constitution.

Never mind the weary way—

Jog along!

Dark is driftin' to the day—

Jog along!

Never mind how times may go—

World's the very best we know,

An' the good Lord made it so—

Jog along!

What our hopes, and what our fears?

Jog along!

What our crosses, and our cares?

Jog along!

What the thorny crown Love wears?

What the fallin' of Love's tears?

There is sunshine for the years—

Jog along!

Time and time, and earth so wide—

Jog along!

Joy is born where joy has died—

Jog along!

So that love may still abide—

So Contentment seeks our side—

Living still through crucified—

This is the golden harvest month

When pumpkins yellow glow;

When politics become red hot

And ice men get a blow.

When people register so they

Can have the right to vote,

And he who has the price procures.

A lightweight overcoat.

This is the month when candidates

All wear a worried look,

And wonder if they will win out,

Or if they'll get the hook.

When open cars contain a chill

And women wear new hats;

When people howl out, "Turn on steam"

To janitors of flats.

This is the month we celebrate

The landing of great Chris;

Who said, "I see the makings of

A mighty land in this."

And of the Pilgrims, who came here

For quiet place to pray

And then took up their guns and drove

The Indians away.

This is the month when all the leaves

Begin to do a turn;

When folks their $15 coal

Have to start in to burn.

When mince pie from seclusion comes

And oysters should be prime;

When folks will find it just as hard

To put aside a dime.

TRUTH OBSCURED

(New York Times)

The Democrats have an issue on which they would carry the country, of the truth about it could be made known to every voter. The truth has been obscured by enormous and dense clouds of misrepresentation. It is going to take money to sweep them away, to put a true understanding of the League of Nations issue and of the other issues of the campaign into the hands of the voters. The Democratic Committee ought at once to put into the field scores of speakers of national reputation, men capable of exposing the deliberate distortions of the issue by Republican speakers and writers, men themselves clearly understanding the League Covenant and able to make the voters understand it, not the false, misshapen image presented to them by the Republicans, but the reality. Democrats who cherish the traditions of their party, who believe in it, who know how flagrantly its leaders and its policies have been misrepresented, who know how great are its aims, how necessary their accomplishment is to the peace of the world and the happiness of mankind, ought to be willing to give liberally of their means to promote the triumph of Democracy at the polls.

ARGENTINAS HAS

BIG CATTLE FAIR

What is probably the world's most important exhibition of pure bred live stock began last week with the formal opening of Argentina's annual exposition at the Palermo grounds in Buenos Aires. The great scale on which this event is carried out is indicative of the magnitude of the live stock industry in the Rives Plate region. Prizes are offered for hundreds of varieties of animals, including practically every breed known to the civilized world. Fabulous prices will be paid for choice specimens brought from foreign countries, for money is no object to the Argentine breeder who wishes to improve the quality of his herd.

This international show is held under the auspices of the Argentine Rural Society, an organization which deserves a large share of the credit for the present prosperous condition of the southern republic. Its activities are closely linked with the economic development of the country. The history of the society dates back to the formative period following the years of dictatorships and foreign wars that ensued after the winning of independence from Spain. A small group of patriotic and far seeing men formed in 1866 an association which has grown into a society whose influence permeates every sphere of the republic's social and economic life. Not only has it been responsible for the remarkable development of all branches of the live stock industry, but it has also been back of practically every movement for the betterment of rural life.

Live stock interests in the United States have not in the past been fully awake to the advantages of active participation in Argentina's great fair. British breeders have usually been well represented; in fact British influence may be seen in the whole machinery of the exposition. Now the United States has assigned a special live stock commissioner to Argentina. The results of these activities are already apparent in the space that is given in this year's programme to American entries. The continuation of the good work should do much to bring about still closer and mutually profitable relations between American breeders and the live stock interests of Argentina.

REP. BLAMED FOR HIGH SUGAR PRICE

Congressman Kincheloe in a Speech at Spottsville Tells Why Sugar Soared to 30c a Pound.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 21.—In a speech made today before a large crowd of Henderson County voters, Congressman David H. Kincheloe explained how the dilly-dallying of the Republican Congress was responsible for thirty cents sugar in this country. Had the Congress accepted President Wilson's recommendation promptly sugar would have sold as cheaply as it did a year before, and almost a billion dollars would have been saved American purchasers. In part Congressman Kincheloe explained the situation as follows:

"The Lever Food Control Act which was passed by a Democratic Congress during the war under which the sugar corporation operated, contained a provision ending the existence of the corporation when the armistice was signed.

President Calls Attention.

"This sugar corporation bought the Cuban sugar crop of 1918 which was sold to American people at 11 and 12 cents per pound. The president in a message to the Republican Congress on the 8th of August 1919, called attention to the fact that the sugar corporation had ceased to function and urged this Republican Congress to pass an act immediately extending the powers of this sugar corporation. Hearings were conducted before a committee of the Senate having charge of this legislation and members of the original sugar corporation appeared before this committee and testified that they had no further powers under the original act by reason of the cessation of the war. Notwithstanding these representations by the President in his message and the members of the sugar corporation, the Senate failed to pass the law extending the life of this corporation until December 1, 1919. The Republican House did not pass it until December 16, 1919, and the House added amendments to the Senate bill which threw it into conference. The conference report was not adopted until the 28th day of December 1919, and the bill did not become a law until December 31, 1919.

Many weeks before that all of the Cuban sugar crop had been sold to England and other countries and there fore the act was of no service to the American people. If this Republican Congress had passed the act immediately after the president had called its attention to the fact in his special message, the sugar corporation would have immediately bought the Cuban Sugar crop at the same price it paid for it in 1918, and therefore the American people would have purchased sugar as cheaply in 1920 as they did in 1919."

WITHOUT AN EQUAL STATES INSPECTOR

Tanlac Built Him Up So Wonderfully His Friends Are Now Taking It.

"Although I have only taken four bottles of Tanlac, I have restored me to perfect health, and I have gained ten pounds in weight," said Floyd E. Whitman, 790 Sawyer St., Akron, O., inspector of the steam heating system for the Goodrich Tire and Rubber Co.

"I had been feeling all run-down for a year or more and my whole system seemed to be getting out of order, as the longer I went the worse I got," he continued. "My appetite was so poor I hadn't eaten a bite for breakfast in a year, and although my wife would fix a small lunch for me to carry with me to work, I always brought all or most of it back home in the afternoon. Even when I did manage to eat a little something it caused me to bloat up with gas until I could hardly breathe and I would be in misery for hours afterwards. I could get but little sleep, and always got up feeling tired and worn out when I went to bed. I just had to drag myself around at my work, and it was only by using great will power I managed to stay on the job at all. Finally, I got so bad off that often while at work I would get weak and nervous all of a sudden, become staggered and just have to stop and rest awhile before I could go on again. In fact, I was in such a bad fix I was just about ready to give up and go to bed when Tanlac came to my rescue.

"The boys at the plant saw the condition I was in, and as several of them had taken Tanlac with remarkable results, they advised me to try it. Well, sir, I commenced getting better right away, and now my improvements have been so great that all the boys in my department at the Goodrich plant who felt like they needed a little building up have taken Tanlac, and it has helped them so much, too, that about all we talk about outside of our work, is Tanlac. Why, I feel at least twenty years younger, and am in such good shape it is hard for me to realize I ever had anything wrong with me. I have regained my strength so that my work is actually a pleasure, and I have such a good appetite my wife jokingly says I am about to eat us out of house and home. I think Tanlac is the grandest medicine in the world and I am always recommending it to others."

Tanlac is sold in Cloverport at Wedding's Drug Store, in Kirk by Mattingly Bros., in Addison by L. D. Addison, in Ammons by Wm. H. Dutschke, and in Stephensport by R. A. Shelman.—Advertisement.

NEARLY 2,000 TONS OF TOMATO SEEDS WASTED.

From 1,000 to 2,000 tons of tomato seeds go to waste each year in the big pulping plants east of the Mississippi River. Investigations by the United States Department of Agriculture indicate that they can be profitably recovered and converted into an edible oil and a press cake or meal for stock feed, with a gross return of more than $85,000 and a net of about $35,000. Plants would operate two months a year on tomato seeds and might be used for grape and pumpkin seeds in addition, reducing the overhead.

FASTING NINE WEEKS.

The Case of a Californian Who Tried to Better His Digestion.

To The Sun and New York Herald: MacSwiney's self-imposed fast in a London jail, now continued forty days, even if it is a bona fide abstinence from any sort of nourishment, is not unprecedented for duration. In 1914 I witnessed and wrote up for the San Francisco Chronicle a self-imposed fast by a tailor, aged 29 dwelling a few blocks from where I was living in the town of Palo Alto, Cal., the college community adjacent to Stanford University.

That man had read, as I then did, a number of authoritative volumes on the theory and science of fasting as a means for relieving diseased or deteriorated digestive channels.

On the twenty-seventh day of his fast, although he had lost very appreciably in weight, he walked nearly three miles and carried some market purchases weighing about thirty pounds. I last saw him in his bedroom a day or two before the fiftieth day, and only then had he taken to his bed. In company with a professor of chemistry in Stanford University, at that time Mayor of the city of Palo Alto, I spent about an hour conversing with the faster and could not help but marvel at the clarity and quick comprehension of his mind and his instantaneous correction of any test error I introduced in referring to earlier interviews.

He told me that after the initial period between the third and sixth day he had had no craving whatever for food. He was waiting for the arrival of that almost uncontrollable desire for food which the authorities had written always is the notice that the fast purpose has been accomplished and nature is ready to resume all her digestive functions in perfect condition. He did have a slight desire for food the thirty-first day, but ignored it as not sufficient urgent.

By the sixty-fifth day of his fast he had become so extremely skeleton-like and so weak physically that physicians and clergymen urged his wife to have him break his fast. This he did, with the approved initial nourishment of half a teaspoonful of orange juice diluted with a like quantity of water and sipped slowly. He repeated this small amount of nourishment about six hours later. Next day he died.

The only nourishment he took prior to the teaspoonful of orange juice was pure water, and of that he drank regularly several times each day. Even up to the sixtieth day his mind was remarkably clarified, his thoughts fluid, and he was never other than keenly normal of brain, without coma or unconsciousness.

It is possible for a man to fast for sixty days and perhaps longer. New York, Sept. 21. Archie Rice.

COSTS MONEY TO BE BEAUTIFUL

American Women Spend Nearly a Billion on Cosmetics. Men Spend it in Smokes.

Washington, October 21.—The women of the United States paid $750,000,000 for rouge, lipsticks, powder and perfume during 1919, according to a compilation of luxury tax returns at the Treasury today. At the same time both men and women spent the enormous sum of $2,700,000,000 for all taxable luxuries the figures show.

While American women were paying their "beauty bill" the men were burning $1,310,000,000 in cigars and cigarettes. Of this $800,000,000 went for cigarettes.

Half a billion dollars was spent for jewelry, but that is only half the amount used to purchase candy. The advent of prohibition boosted America's bill for soft drinks $350,000,000. For phonographs and pianos $250,000,000 was paid out and for automobiles $200,000,000.

For some mysterious reason Uncle Sam classifies chewing gum as a luxury, and for this confection $500,000,000 was spent. The figures fail to disclose how much of it was parked on the backs of theatre seats.

Here are a few of the other items on the nation's luxury bill:

Joy riding, pleasure resorts and races, $3,000,000,000; luxurious foods, $5,000,000,000; luxurious services, $3,000,000,000; toilet soaps $400,000,000; chewing tobacco and snuff, $800,000,000; ice cream, $350,000,000, and cake and confections, $350,000,000.

WESTERN KENTUCKY COAL DROPS FROM $4 TO $3.

Quotations for Western Kentucky coal carload lots in Louisville Wednesday, says the Owensboro Messenger, were off about a dollar on the ton it was learned here. Local operators who have been shipping their coal for $6 a ton at the mine were offered only $3 a ton. Local dealers who were in communication with railroad operators in Muhlenberg and other counties south of Owensboro stated that no reduction was given at the mine. The market was admitted to be draggy, however. One operator called a dealer here to inquire if he wanted any coal. This is the first time any of the railroad operators have sought local business in months. This operator was not after it, however, to the extent of cutting prices as he asked $7.50 a ton.

It's a cinch to figure why Camels sell!

Camel CIGARETTES

You should know why Camels are so unusual, so refreshing, so satisfying. First, quality—second, Camels expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos which you'll certainly prefer to either kind smoked straight!

Camels blend makes possible that wonderful mellow mildness—yet all the desirable body is there! And, Camels never tire your taste!

You'll appreciate Camels freedom from any unpleasant cigarette after-taste or unpleasant cigarette odor!

For your own satisfaction compare Camels puff by puff with any cigarette in the world at any price!

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

GYPSY SMITH
FAVORS LEAGUE

It's Existence is Justified if it Prevents One War, He Says. England Wants League

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 20.—A profound impression was created in Louisville when Gypsy Smith, the famous English Evangelist, who is conducting a revival here declared in favor of the League of Nations. "If the League of Nations" he said "prevents one war it proves its right to existence. No man can be a follower of Jesus Christ and not be a lover of peace and a propagandist for peace. He was the Prince of Peace, the author of peace and the bringer of peace, and just in proportion as we are faithful to Him and the great principles for which He died we shall do all in our power to promote the peace of the world. "Any association or league which helps to bring about the harmony and the brotherhood of nations is in line with the Divine will. And somewhere back of my mind and deeply rooted in my heart is the feeling that the Divine Father is looking to the great English-speaking races—America and England—to bring the reign of universal peace. "What an ideal for us to strive after! Along that road lies peace to the world, glory to God and good will among men." Mr. Smith who has recently arrived from England says that the English people want the League of Nations, but that they want it with guarantees, because a country with seven hundred thousand deaths and three million casualties in the last great war, does not want to attach its signature to a scrap of paper. The English people know that little can be accomplished through the League as long as the greatest English speaking country in the world is not a member.

"I Wouldn't Go Camping Without Rat-Snap," Says Ray White.

"Wife and I spent our vacation camping last summer, smell of cooking brought rats. We went to town, got some RAT-SNAP, broke up cakes, put it outside our tent. We got the rats alright—big fellows." Farmers, storekeepers, housewives, should use RAT-SNAP. Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Conrad Payne & Co., Cloverport, and B. F. Beard & Co., Hardinsburg.

RIDDING THE COCKLEBUR

In eradicating the cocklebur, remember that it carries a double-barreled gun. Every bur carries two seeds only one of which sprouts the first year. Even when the product of that seed has been killed the other will be in shape to make trouble the next season. The United States Department of Agriculture has a circular on the cocklebur—how to get rid of it.

LETTERS WE APPRECIATE

TWO IRVINGTON BOYS

To The Breckenridge News: We will drop a few lines to your paper and if you have space use it. We are in the beautiful state of sunshine, flowers and honey, and dry as the Sahara Desert. California has been on the boom for the last three years. Good crops and high prices. This is one of the prettiest places on earth, but still we have lots of thoughts of our dear old Kentucky state with its nice blue grass, fine horses, pretty women, and with lots of good whiskey. That is something you don't get here. Enclosed you will find $2.00 for The Breckenridge News. We do not know the price of it, so you can send it and if that is not enough for a year we will send more when that is up. We like the home news. As we have been here fourteen years I think we will pay you a visit soon. Milton Hardaway and E. C. Jordan formerly of Irvington. Present address: 1911 North Main St., Los Angeles, California.

to The Breckenridge News We can't get along without the News as it is like a letter from home. Illinois is a fine place to live, but dear old Breckenridge county for us. With best wishes for the News and it's many readers. We remain, yours truly, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Pate, Boody, Ill.

THURSDAY, WARMEST DAY
IN OCT. FOR 46 YEARS.

Thursday is said to have been the warmest day recorded in October in forty-six years according to the Weather Bureau officials of Louisville. In the afternoon of that day the thermometer registered 84 degrees. The standing record for the date was eclipsed by two degrees.

BOLT TO COX FORMS LANDSLIDE

Kentucky Republican Ranks
Deserted Daily by Citizens
Who See the Light.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 25.—The swing of the Republicans in Louisville and the State of Kentucky, who cannot abide by the wiggle and wobble of Senator Harding on such a vital moral question as the League of Nations, has assumed the proportions of a landslide. Each day dozens of independent thinking, forward looking citizens announce that they cannot support the Republican ticket any longer.

The majority of them are swayed in this action by the belief that the only hope of the League of Nations is through the Democratic party.

Here are a few prominent Republicans who have recently announced their intention of voting for Cox:

Theodore B. Blakey, Beattyville, former assistant attorney-general under a Republican Governor, Augusta Wilson, and brother of Clayton B. Blakey, former Republican City Attorney of Louisville.

Rev. Geo. H. Given, who is visiting Elizabethtown, and formerly a citizen of Louisville.

Samuel McDowell Anderson, former Republican alderman of Louisville.

Geo. R. Washburne, life long Republican of Louisville.

Harry B. Driver, a Republican organization worker.

Charles G. Tachau, winner of Congressional citation in the war of Independent Republican.

Miss Katherine G. Gladfelter, whose father is business manager of the Republican Louisville Herald.

Miss Catherine and Lydia Burch, daughters of the President of the Louisville Board of Trade, and Treasurer of Pease Gaultier Company, who has been a life long Republican.

Rev. M. P. Hunt, pastor of the Broadway Methodist church, who has always aided the Republicans in their campaign in Louisville.

Mrs. George Evans Davis, granddaughter of Geo. Wm. Henry Harrison, famous as "Tippecanoe," and President of the United States; and niece of Benjamin Harrison, Republican President from 1889-96.

Prof. I. William Davenport, Registrar of the University of Louisville, life long Republican.

Mrs. Alonzo Redmond, Marine Hospital, a Republican.

Mrs. J. D. Stewart, daughter of the late Chas. T. Ballard, a life long Republican.

Mrs. Charles B. Semple, president of the Louisville Woman's Club and Independent.

Mrs. R. P. Halleck, president of the Consumers League of Kentucky and Independent.

Rev. R. L. McCready, Dean of Christ Church Cathedral, and Independent.

Henry I. Stone, former Republican city attorney of Louisville.

Rev. Dr. Charles Ewell Craik, Dean Emeritus Christ church Cathedral.

Alex G. Barrett, former chairman of a Republican Board of Public Works.

G. A. Breaux, Jr., Secretary of Ballard and Ballard, a Republican.

Baylor Hickman, president of the Ewald Iron Company, Republican.

Kenneth McGuire, president of the Harlan Coal Company, Republican.

Frank Cassell, Sales Director of Belknap Hardware Mfg. Company.

Newton G. Crawford, treasurer and Louisville manager of the New Phoenix Storage Company, Independent.

Mrs. Charles T. Ray, daughter of former Republican Mayor of Louisville, James F. Grinstead.

Mrs. Bailey Grinstead, daughter-in-law of former Republican Mayor of Louisville, James F. Grinstead.

I. W. Bernheim, life long Republican, and always a heavy contributor to the Republican cause.

Credo T. Harris, novelist and brother-in-law of S. Thurston Ballard, Republican Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky.

James G. Kirwin, prominent Louisville business man who has always voted Republican.

Burton Vance, Roosevelt follower and candidate for United States Senator on Progressive ticket in 1914.

Thomas Bohannon, president of the Bohannon Realty Company who voted the straight Republican ticket in 1916.

LESSON IN GRAMMAR.

Mary Sterling, in St. Louis Post-Dispatch. "He gave the cake to her and me." To some sounds rather queer, But, in this world of oddities, It is correct, my dear.

"He gave the cake to she and I," Has such a stylish sound, But shun it, child, as you would shun The snake upon the ground.

THE MAN WHO WINS

The man who wins is an average man: Not built on any peculiar plan. Not blessed with any peculiar luck; Just steady and earnest and full of pluck. When asked a question he does not "guess"— He knows and answers "No" or "Yes;" When set a task that the rest can't do, He buckles down till he's put it through. Three things he learned—that the man who tries Finds favor in his employer's eyes; That it pays to know more than one thing well; And it doesn't pay all he knows to tell. So he works and works; till one fine day There's a better job with higher pay. And the men who shirked whenever they could Are bossed by the man whose work made good. For the man who wins is the man who works. Who neither trouble nor labor shirks. Who uses his hands, his head, his eyes; The man who wins is the man who tries.

KENTUCKY, OH, KENTUCKY.

Kentucky has passed a law prohibiting the carrying of firearms.—News item.

Oh, shade of Simon Kenton! Oh, shade of Daniel Boone! God send you ne'er revisit the glimpses of the moon! The Dark and Bloody Ground you knew. Shorn of its glory, shrinks from view Red warriors bold phantoms, whoop now with joyous sounds, Whom Boone's old trusty sent to course the Happy Hunting Ground They lord it over pioneers Who paid the price with blood and tears.

It's rumored through the Blue Grass almost with bated breath, The Cumberlands are silent as with the hush of death. The squirrels chortle at their play For e'en the small-bore is passe.

The mountaineer's restricted for weapon to a club. The feudist call not "Life for life," but merely "Drub for drub." "Well heeled" connotes but shoe or boot, And only chutes are left to shoot.

The kernel of the Colonel is hollow, husked and dry. The rifle has been rifled, the bloom is off the rye.

We can but wonder what has struck, And where in Cain in Old Kaintuck. —Maurice Morris in New York Sun and Herald.

HOW TO PICK 'EM IN GLORIOUS CLIMATE OF CALIFORNIA

They are both found in California. If they wear geraniums on their coats, they are tourists.

If they carry an umbrella when the sky is overcast, they are tourists.

If they walk around in the rain without an umbrella, they are natives.

If they wear Summer clothes in January, they are tourists.

If they wear furs in the Summer, they are natives.

If they say "sack", "bucket" and "passed" they are tourists.

If they say "bag", "pail" and "wentby," they are natives.

If they wash, go to the movies and to the beach on Sunday, they are natives.

If the fleas bother them they are tourists.

If they go about in automobiles, they are natives.

If they go about in rubberneck wagons, they are tourists.

If they have been to the ostrich farm and the alligator farm, they are tourists.

If they go camping they are natives.

If they watch the waves they are tourists.

If they say, "I'll say she does," you can't be sure.—Life.

SONG FOR DEMOCRACY.

Tune "John Brown's Body"
The eyes of all the nation are upon the Ship of State,
She's due to start a four course around election date;
There'll be a Captain Cox, so all our pretty voting mates
Just vote for Democracy.
Chorus
Ladies, ladies we are for YOU
Ladies, ladies we are for YOU
Ladies, ladies we are for YOU
Just vote for Democracy.

"HOW WELL YOU LOOK?"

When Your Blood Is Rich and Red People Notice Your Good Health.

PEPTO-MANGAN BUILDS HEALTH

Pale Face, Dull Eyes, Drooping
Shoulders, Result From Clogged Blood.

If your blood is in bad shape it shows up in your looks and feeling. When your blood is rich with red corpuscles your color is better—your lips are red, eyes open and bright; your good feeling shows in your actions.

Common sense will tell you that if weak, thin blood makes you look lifeless, it lowers your vitality. If your vitality is low you have little power to resist disease germs. Men, women and children with rich, red blood are able to fight off the germs which bring severe illness.

When you feel run down and weak, with no appetite and no ambition, take Pepto-Mangan for awhile. It is a great blood building tonic. You should begin to feel better within a few days.

Pepto-Mangan is put up in both liquid and tablet form. Take either kind you prefer, because they have the same medicinal value. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's." The full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," should be on the package.—Advertisement.

Three excited men rushed into a New York saloon and demanded a fountain pen. With the pen one of them wrote out a check and handed it to one of the others, saying: "I'm glad to get a good car at that price!" "If that's the way you feel about it, I'll buy you a drink," said the other man, and the bartender on order, sympathetically put up three whiskies. The strangers were revenue agents and victim of their psychological artifice will appear today in court.

FRENCH FIND HUGE GRAFT

Buyers of Army Supplies Discover Cases Full of Baby Clothing.

ASTONISHING revelations of graft, amounting into millions of dollars, in supplies shipped to the American forces overseas during the war have just been made in taking an inventory on goods bought by the French from the United States.

A full mile of cases marked "bottles of ink" or "canned food" were found to be camouflaged, only the top layer of each containing cans of food or bottles of ink. The rest of the cans or bottles were empty.

More than 50,000 cases of baby underwear, baby socks and baby bonnets were found, and the French are wondering what the Americans intended these for. Hundreds of thousands of pairs of "woolen" underclothes were found to be cotton of the poorest quality, while a vast number of cases designated as containing clothing were either empty or filled with a jumble of material in the worst possible condition.

It is estimated that it will take more than five years to sell the stocks piled up at the Glevros depot alone. Meanwhile, due to the insufficiency of staffs to handle the stocks, millions of dollars' worth of supplies are rusting and spoiling.

FORT, RELIC OF INDIAN WARS IS PERFECTLY PRESERVED

Less than half a century ago almost every American community west of the Mississippi was protected against Indian raids by a fort or stockade. Most of these structures have not fallen into dust, declares Popular Mechanics Magazine in an illustrated article for November. In southern Utah, however, is a stone structure, known as "Cove Fort," which was built in 1867 at the time of the Blackhawk-Mormon War, yet is today in a state of perfect preservation. It is now used, in fact, as a ranch house and hotel.

"How I cleared the Mill of Rats," By J. Tucker, R. I.

"As night watchman believe I have seen more rats than any man. Dogs wouldn't dare go near them. Got $1.25 pkg. of RAT-SNAP, inside of 6 weeks cleared them all out. Killed them by the score every night. Guess the rest were scared away. I'll never be without RAT-SNAP." Three sizes 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Conrad Payne & Co., Cloverport, and B. F. Beard & Co., Hardinsburg.

In the garden of George Everett, at Rockland, Me., is a pumpkin vine which starts out in regulation fashion, but about 8 inches from the root begins to spread until it is about 6 inches wide and as flat as a belt. Attached to the vine are 14 pumpkins, with a cluster of little pumpkins, like a bunch of grapes at the end.

One opportunity is enough for the man who knows how to take advantage of it.
